

Maine Right to Life Oratory Competition

February 25, 2026

Saint Joseph's College of Maine

The Maine Right to Life (MRTL) Oratory Competition is a new statewide event modeled on the National Right to Life (NRTL) Oratory Contest. The first-place winner of the MRTL competition will advance to represent Maine at the National Right to Life Oratory Contest in Virginia.

---

1. Eligibility Requirements

- High school juniors and seniors who are in that grade level as of February 1 of the year of the national contest are eligible to compete.
  - Advanced, non-traditional, and homeschooled students must be formally recognized by their school or program as a junior or senior. For homeschooled students, the year of anticipated college entry may be used to determine eligibility.
  - Students who competed as juniors may compete again as seniors with an entirely new speech, unless they previously won first place at the national contest. Second-place national winners may compete again.

2. Speech Topic and Content Requirements

- Contestants must research, write, and present an original pro-life speech addressing one of the following topics:
    - Abortion
    - Infanticide
    - Euthanasia
    - Stem cell research
  - The speech must address the selected topic directly and be based on up-to-date, factual information.
  - No copyrighted speeches or previously published works may be used.

3. Time Limits

- Speeches must be five to seven minutes in length.
  - A contestant will be disqualified if the speech is under four minutes or over eight minutes.
  - Judges will use their discretion in scoring speeches that fall between four–five minutes or seven–eight minutes, and time deviations may negatively affect the score.

4. Presentation Rules

- Appropriate gestures are permitted.
- Props are not allowed.
- Contestants may use notes.
- The use of a podium is optional, but podiums may not be available. If there are not enough podiums for all rooms, none will be used.
- Microphones are not permitted, unless the Contest Director determines they are necessary due to room conditions.

Style Guidelines

- The style of the speech should be appropriate to the message.
  - Dramatic presentations are not permitted. This includes:
    - Reading or performing material written by another author (e.g., short stories or poems)
    - Acting as another person or thing (for example, portraying an unborn child)
  - Quotations may be used to support a point but may not dominate the speech and must be properly cited.
  - This rule does not prohibit the appropriate use of emotion.

5. Speech Revisions and Documentation

- Speech content may not be substantially changed as a contestant advances through levels of competition.
  - Minor revisions for clarity, factual correction, or time adjustment are allowed and encouraged.

- A written copy of the contestant's speech must be submitted for forwarding to the national contest if the contestant advances.

6. Contest Format and Progression

- The competition will consist of multiple rounds, including at least one preliminary round, depending on the number of contestants.
- In preliminary rounds, contestants will compete in rooms of four to seven speakers.
- The top two scorers from each room will advance until four contestants remain for the final round.
- Each room will have three judges and a timekeeper.
- Speaking order for the preliminary round will be determined by random draw. In subsequent rounds, speaking order will be determined by scores from the previous round.

7. Judging and Scoring

- Contestants are evaluated in four categories:
  1. Introduction
  2. Content
  3. Presentation
  4. Conclusion
- Judges assign a score of 1–10 in each category (40 points maximum per judge).
- Judges' scores are combined to determine the contestant's total score.
- The highest total score determines advancement and final placement.
- Judges' decisions are final.

8. Ties, Errors, and Authority

- Ties will be resolved by the Contest Director.
- Every effort will be made to ensure accuracy. In the event of an error, reasonable steps will be taken to correct it.

- Any questions, concerns, or disputes will be handled by the Contest Director.
- The decision of the Contest Director regarding the interpretation or application of these rules is final.

9. Recording and Rights

- The contest may be videotaped or recorded.
  - All recordings remain the property of MRTL/National Right to Life.

10. Advancement to the National Contest

- State right-to-life organizations sponsor local and state contests.
  - The Maine Right to Life first-place winner will advance to compete at the National Right to Life Oratory Contest.

11. Awards

- MRTL contestants may receive plaques of achievement.
- The Maine Right to Life first-place winner, along with one parent, will receive travel to attend the 2026 National Right to Life Annual Conference, held June 12–13, 2026, in Arlington, Virginia.

National-Level Awards

- First Place: $1,000 and the opportunity to deliver the winning speech at the National Right to Life Conference
  - Second Place: $750
  - Third Place: $500
  - Fourth Place: $250

These rules apply specifically to the Maine Right to Life Oratory Competition and the National Right to Life Oratory Contest. No other national, state, or local speech contest rules apply.
